CONTRACT AND RULES: WHCC HERITAGE DAY CRAFT FAIR

(1) Exhibitors are required to arrive during the set-up times (8 – 10 a.m.) and have their displays complete, attended and open to the public the entire duration of the fair. No vehicles will be allowed on the field. Vehicles will be allowed on the field access ramp but will need to be moved immediately after unloading so other crafters may use the access. The Exhibitor may not take down his/her display or work before closing time of the Fair.

(2) Exhibitor agrees and covenants at all times not to injure, overload, deface or otherwise harm the premises or any part thereof or equipment therein which is improper, offensive or contrary to reasonable acts, not to use any advertising medium that may constitute a nuisance such as loudspeakers, sound amplifiers, or phonographs.

(3) The Exhibitor shall assume all risks to the exhibitor's merchandise or property including but not limited to risk of damage or loss of whatever kind or nature either directly or indirectly to the exhibitor's merchandise or property or arising as a result of damage or loss to the exhibitor's merchandise or property. The Exhibitor shall not make any claim for such damage or loss against the Waterford Historical Museum and Cultural Center. No refunds issued after acceptance.

(4) The Waterford Historical Museum and Cultural Center shall not be liable to any person or organization, company or other entity for any loss, damage or injury or injurious effects to persons or property of whatever kind or nature: (a) caused by neglect or other acts or failure to act on the part of the exhibitor, his or her agents, servants or employees or (b) caused by products or items sold or exhibited by exhibitors directly or through warranty whether express or implied, either written or oral.

(5) Exhibitors must furnish their own display in its entirety.

(6) I have read, understood and agree to comply with the above rules.
